The American Numismatic Society

Office of the Secretary

Dear Sir or Madam:

In a communication from The American Numismatic Society, Signed by Sidney P Noe, Secretary and Librarian, and dated Sept. 18, 1922, the following statements are made: "...we...will send you the books in exchange as early next week as possible
..." May I with due deference and respect draw your conclusive attention to the apparent discrepancy between the above statements and the fact that I have seen neither hide nor hair of the aforesaid and have not received any farther communication from your office elucidating said discrepancy.

Very truly yours
R C MacMahon

New York.

Dear Sir:-

In response to your letter of the 14th would say that Mr. Noe left for Europe at the time the book you sent was received, and as our Janitor, who delivers our packages, was also away at that time, there was a little misunderstanding about the sending down to you of the books which you were to receive in exchange for the book you sent us. However the package was delivered this morning to the above address and the receipt signed by Matthew Kubisa. Please pardon the delay which has necessitated your writing.

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Dear Mr. MacMahon:

Can you give me a quotation on a book by Peterson called "Gaits of Campania"? I know nothing more about it than its title, but I believe it is a fairly recent book.

Also, do you care to make an offer for a copy of A. E. Cook's "Zeus", of which I want to dispose? It is a large octavo of nearly nine hundred pages, by a Cambridge Professor, and deals with the Zeus Gaits. I paid $13.65 for this copy; but as we have one in the library here, I should like to cash in on this. Can you use it?

Very truly yours,

Librarian & Secretary

Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for sending the copy of Dionysii Halicarnassensis, Opera Omnia V, VI, as requested, and which we are returning to you under separate cover.
Enclosed please find stamps for postage to cover cost of sending this to us.

Appreciating your courtesy,

Very truly yours,

Librarian & Secretary
